My Dear Kelkar,

With reference to the forthcoming visit of the Distinguished Visitor to Mysore, I am desired to request that the Press Adviser in the State may kindly be asked to summon, take into confidence and inform representatives of the press in the State that His Royal Highness will visit Bangalore and Mysore at the end of June and beginning of July. For security reasons the fact of the visit and dates and details of his programme must not be published before hand but His Royal Highness will be accompanied by two Public Relations Officers who will be entirely responsible for publicity and photographs and who will issue through the Information Officer to the Local Press at the end of the visit a full account of the programme undertaken.

Yours sincerely,
Allacane.

M.G. Mehkri Esq., B.A., LL.B.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

Sir, I called with phone to the Editor of the Hindu as he was away for 7 days. At the meeting of the proprietors of News-papers. They have been requested not to publish any information unless released by their publishing office, which they have agreed.
